District schools earn ISBE's 2012 Illinois Honor Roll Academic Excellence Awards

Arbury Hills School, Frankfort Square School, and the former Mary Drew School earned the Illinois State Board of Education's 2012 Illinois Honor Roll Academic Excellence Awards. To earn the honor, schools must have made Adequate Yearly Progress in 2011 and 2012 as required by the No Child Left Behind Act. Additionally, 90 percent of students must have met or exceeded state standards in both reading and math for the three most recent school years.

District approves financial planning contract

The Board of Education approved a contract with PMA Financial Network for long-range financial planning software at its meeting on Wednesday. The software allows for flexibility in District financial projections and supports continuous updates of multi-year plans based on shifts in funding.

In personnel matters, the Board

- accepted the request of a family medical leave extension for employee 4065.

In other matters, the Board

- recognized Rebekah Krooswyk, Kevin Galassini, Chase Zawilinski, Suvdhi Shah, Elyse Skolek, Amanda Baird, Jeremy Stajkowski, Hayle Brothen, Jacob Hill, Jack Zinsky, Ben Frigo and Carli Liva for participating in the Summit Hill School District Spelling Bee. Jack Zinsky was named the District 161 Spelling Bee overall winner and will move on to regional competition;
- recognized Summit Hill's four representatives who have qualified for the regional finals in the National History Bee competition: Robert Radtke, Hunter Sweeney, Jack Zinsky and Ryan Burns;
- accepted gifts from Arbury Hills STARS in the amount of $1,946.00; Dr. Julian Rogus School RESCO in the amount of $22,055.70; Frankfort Square School SCO in the amount of $500; Indian Trail School SCO in the amount of $7,518.19; Walker School SCO in the amount of $1,449.33; and Summit Hill Jr. High SCO in the amount of $945; and
- set the reimbursement amount for mileage at 56.5¢.
